REPUDIATE THE INFAMOUS BARGAIN.

From The Mail and Express.

The General Committee of the State declines to approve the indersement of e The General Committee of the State Democrac declines to approve the indorsement of ex-inspecto. Williams for the Senate by the leaders in the XIII. District, even though the disrepurable deal promised Republican support to the State Democracy candidates for Assembly in the XIVth and XVIII districts. "Jakey" Kunzenman and "Patty" Grote It is probable, therefore, that the Infamous bargais will be regulated, and that Williams will have to depend for his votes on the elements in both parties who have in the past been intimidated by his club or who can be influenced by the methods which enabled him to own a brownstone front, a steam yacht, three bank accounts and "lots in Japan," of a salary of $2.56 a year. A DISGRACEFUL NOMINATION

A DISGRACEFUL NOMINATION.

From The Poughkeepsic Eagle.

We do not know the general character of most of the men placed in nomination for office in New-York City. The papers speak of them in a general way as being first-class men, but there is one at least whose nomination is a disgrace to the party, and who should receive the overwheiming disapproval of all men who desire that the Republican party should represent the honesty and decency of the Nation. The man we refer to is Alexander S. Willlams, once inspector of Police in New-York, forced to resign by the present administration because his record was rank and smelled to heaven.

A CHANCE FOR THE GOOD GOVERNMENT

A CHANCE FOR THE GOOD GOVERNMENT CLUBS.

Prom The Morning Advertiser.

Plain words are best. The nomination of expolice Inspector Alexander S. Williams, as the Republican candidate in the XIIth Senate District, and the indorsement of the notorious "Jakey" Kunzenman and "Fatiy" Grote, "fate Democratic backs, by the Republicans of the XIVth and XVIIth Assembly districts, respectively, are acts which are not morally binding upon the Republican voters of these constituencies. Here is a chance for the Good Government clubs to perform a great service in the cause of decent politics. Let the Good Government clubs name reputable andidates in the XIIth Senate and XIVth and LvVIIth Assembly districts, and then appeal to the honest voters to railly to their support. Such an appeal would not railly to their support. Such an appeal would not railly to their support. Such an appeal would not represent alleged Republican candidates, and would gladly welcome an opportunity to cost their ballots for worthy legislative nominees.

IT OUGHT TO BE OPPOSED.

final round for the St. Andrew's Cup. and round for the St. Antiews Cup. The latter son, 2 up, using only St strakes to make the course. Sands played strongly, as he has done all alone. For a man who has been golfing less than a year, he is a marvel. Eight holes in the match were halved and he held Stoddart down far more closely than any other man in the tournament has done. Stoddart played in his old form yesterday, and has thus become the winner of both the Brown and the St. Andrew's cups.

The last event, the professional match, which wa played in a steady rain, was won by Willie Dunn in 80. Four strokes was his usual number for a hole, and he did not seem much put off his game by the weather. Davis was second with two even the weather. Davis was rounds of 41 each, and Rawlins, the Newport champion, third with 84. Campbell got into the bunker in approaching the sevents-out hole, and lost three or four shots. It is unusual for him to make his takes like this, and if things had gone in their or linary way he would have at least their with Davis for second place. The scores.
